JOINT REPORT OF THE NATIONAL PRESIDENTS by Sylvia Halbardier, Life Member, Eta Epsilon, TBΣ and

Dr. Kirk Randazzo, Life Member, Zeta Chi, KKΨ

To the Brothers and Sisters of Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma,

Welcome to the 2003 National Convention! We wanted to take a few moments to thank you for taking time out of your personal lives to join us here in Norfolk, Virginia. Since we were active members of the Fraternity and Sorority, we have always looked forward to the National Convention; a time to reconnect with our fellow brothers and sisters across the country. The convention is packed with opportunities to experience a variety of things, from musical events such as the NIB Concert, reading band, and a performance by the Air Force Band from Langley Air Force Base; to the sharing of brotherhood and sisterhood; to leadership workshops and historical sessions (for example, the founder of Tau Beta Sigma, Wava Banes Henry). These opportunities are yours for the choosing and we hope you all take advantage of as many as you can.

As the National Presidents we have had an amazing two years. When we were both elected in Corpus Christi, we told you all that this biennium “won’t be dull.” Well, looking back on things, we were right and we would like to talk briefly about some of the highlights from this biennium. Almost immediately after we all returned to our homes from Corpus, our nation endured the tragedy of September 11th. As the events of that day faded into painful memory, Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma helped ease the pain by commissioning a piece of music from Donald Grantham. His piece, entitled “Come, memory...” reflected not only upon that tragic day, but also upon the courage and compassion of ordinary men and women who were suddenly transformed into heroes. This past fall we were able to premier “Come, memory...” in six different locations across the country. Our thanks to the band programs and directors at the University of Minnesota, Indiana University, Syracuse University, Florida State University, the University of Texas and the University of California at Los Angeles. Also our thanks go to the many individuals and chapters who contributed financially to this project.

Last month we received word that our Executive Director, Col. Alan Bonner, had been asked to join the faculty at East Tennessee State University, as the Director of Bands. I am sure you can imagine our surprise – although we already know what a wonderful musician and conductor Alan is – at the prospect of having to find a new Executive Director. Well, thankfully for us, Alan soon after requested to remain Executive Director. We want to take this opportunity to thank Alan for his hard work and dedication, and to extend our appreciation for his continued involvement.

Finally, we would like to take a few moments to comment on the partnership between Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma. Over the past biennium some issues have come up over which members from both organizations possess strong feelings. The National Councils have been discussing these issues and others always with the goal of identifying alternatives that benefit both organizations. Yet, there are times when we disagree and that is fine, provided we remain committed to each other. We want to stand before you now and restate our commitment to one another. As an organization, Kappa Kappa Psi is committed to Tau Beta Sigma; as an organization Tau Beta Sigma is committed to Kappa Kappa Psi. Together we are committed to college and university bands! It is our peaceful partnership that allows us to remain individual organizations but come together to serve a wonderful purpose: the promotion and support of bands. We hope that you all will join with us this week and throughout the next biennium in this endeavor.

Thank you again for traveling to Virginia to be with us as we celebrate our accomplishments. We hope you enjoy the 2003 National Convention.

In the bond,

Kirk Randazzo
National President, KKΨ
and Sylvia Halbardier
National President, TBΣ

JOINT REPORT OF THE NATIONAL VICE PRESIDENTS FOR COLONIZATION AND MEMBERSHIP

by Deborah L. Baker, Life Member, Beta Xi, TBΣ

Michael K. Osborn, Life Member, Zeta Epsilon, KKΨ

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This past biennium has been a growing process for us. We have had to learn about each other and build a working relationship while helping our individual colonies and building new interest for our organization.

Our joint task this biennium was to better define an outline for districts that wish to host a colonization convention. We formulated a one-day outline, which would allow districts to host interested schools alongside their regular convention schedule.

In June, we attended a CEO conference with Alan Bonner to prepare for our impending roles as national presidents. This two-day conference allowed us to talk, to dream, to listen, and to challenge our feelings and the feelings of our organizations. We walked away with a new respect for each other knowing that together we will lead the next biennium. We faced the serious issues of our current organizations. What is the future of Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma? Where do we go from here? This discussion brought us to five paths: stay the way we are, merge, divorce, peaceful partnership, or unification. Together we eliminated the first three knowing that they are not options that are desired or work. Upon moving to a peaceful partnership, we had to open up our feelings and build our trust. Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma have spent the last fifteen years working against each other. During the next biennium it is time to change. We know that together we are much stronger than apart. We know that we cannot continue to fight "in-house." We must find the way to accept every chapter for who they are and what they bring to our organizations. Kappa Kappa Psi has 165 strong chapters and Tau Beta Sigma has 130. Together we have almost three hundred chapters for a total of 7,000 college students making a difference in this world! That is something to celebrate!!

We challenge you this week, to help your national councils find a new trust between our organizations, something at the chapter level our membership already does so well. We challenge you to help us build a peaceful partnership. A partnership that will tell the entire college band world that Tau Beta Sigma and Kappa Kappa Psi are one force. There is a reason to have our chapters on every campus. There is not a reason to fight over membership, continue to debate the gender issue, or for either organization to feel threatened.

Only one of us in this room today can truly tell the events of our joint beginnings. But none of us can change what has transpired. What we can do is share our common bond, celebrate our differences, and continue to support each other as brothers and sisters in one family. We hope you will embrace this new direction with excitement. We hope that this new direction is what you, our active membership, has been asking for.

We wish you a terrific convention!

Respectfully submitted,
Debbie Baker
Mike Osborn

REPORT OF THE NATIONAL EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

by Lt. Col. Alan L. Bonner, USAF (Ret.)

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Welcome to the KKΨ and TBΣ 2003 National Convention! The past few days have seen a steady increase in electricity and excitement as you all have overwhelmed this place. It's great to renew acquaintances and friendships, and I see the warmth and joy of our brotherhood and sisterhood all over the place!

What happens this week is the culmination of nearly four years of planning, preparation, promotion, and perspiration by the officers of both National Councils, the Staff of the National Headquarters, and chapters from the Northeast District who applied and were selected to be members of the Host Chapter Team. Congratulations to all of you who care so much about our Fraternity and Sorority that you wanted to be here and to be a part of the decision making process that sets the direction for our organizations!

We are in a terrific hotel whose staff has already jumped through hoops for us in many ways, and I know they will do all possible to make our convention a success from the facilities standpoint! I can't promise that they can provide you with every thing you want, but I can promise that they will work hard for us to the limit of their ability and resources.

I want to introduce our Host Chapter Team to you. They have already committed countless hours to the National Convention in many ways, and we owe them our deep appreciation and respect for their efforts on our behalf: Zeta Psi – KKΨ and Epsilon Rho – TBΣ from Virginia State University; Theta eta – KKΨ and Eta Gamma – TBΣ from Boston University; Zeta Omicron – TBΣ from Virginia Tech; Beta Eta – TBΣ from University of Maryland; Omicron – KKΨ from West Virginia University; and Iota Xi – KKΨ and Epsilon Sigma – TBΣ from Norfolk State.

I am proud to introduce my staff from the National Headquarters to you: Dixie Mosier-Greene – National Administrator; Diana Spiva – National Accountant; Mike McMurtrey – Publications Manager; Debbie Morris – Membership Services Coordinator, who is leaving us at the end of this month (anyone want a job?); and our two CFRs, Carolyn Steckel – TBΣ who is a graduate from Bowling Green State University and Adam Cantley, our new KKΨ CFR who has just completed his Masters from West Virginia University.

Folks, we have been fortunate to have found a hotel in a terrific location with so much to do for everyone without really having to look for it. Within easy walking distance are dozens of wonderful restaurants, clubs, shops, a huge mall, numerous museums and exhibits, cruise ships, and one of the best entertainment establishments I've ever spent time in... And that doesn't even begin to address the beaches at the ocean and the historical sites within easy driving distance. I encourage you to take advantage of being in this exciting part of our country to the greatest extent possible while you are here! The National Councils have even put an afternoon and evening off for you to do just that! Don't sit in your room on Thursday; go see what's here!

Tonight is the opening concert by the National Intercollegiate Band, with Guest Conductor, good friend and colleague Don Wilcox, and Jack Stamp, Commissioning Composer of a wonderful new work called "Bandancing" which you must hear tonight!!! You'll love it!!! The NIB is having their Dress Rehearsal right now at Norfolk State University Performing Arts Center, and the concert begins at 8 P.M. I know many of you have driven, and I encourage you who have cars to do as much car-pooling as possible to NSU to help us with transport to and from NSU. However, for those of you who don't have access to wheels, we have worked with NSU to provide three coaches to shuttle as many of you as possible over and back. I want you all to pay close attention to this: Shuttles will roll up in the front of the hotel at 6:30 P.M., and my staff will be there to help get you on as fast as possible. I believe there is a plan for districts to go in some order, right? In any case, the busses will take that first group over to the NSU Performing Arts Center and immediately return to the hotel for the next group. The second round should depart the hotel at about 7:00 P.M., so if you don't make it to the first departure, PLEASE be in the lobby area at 6:55 P.M. ready to get on the busses as soon as they return. They will make their run and return for the final run at approximately 7:30 P.M. If you miss that one, you always have the option of walking to NSU, which is a little over a mile. After the concert, the busses will immediately load at the drop off point and begin the return shuttle. Not all of you can get on the first run, so be patient and wait in the area for their return about 20 minutes after they leave on their first run. Again, they will make three trips, which should be plenty for the number of participants we have here! We are excited at being able to have access to a new performing arts center for our NIB program, and we want you all there to enjoy the efforts made to bring this national program of KKΨ and TBΣ to fruition!

Tomorrow night, we will have a concert by the USAF Band from Langley AFB just up the road, Commanded by Major Larry Lang. Both Concert Band and Jazz Bands will be featured, and you don't want to miss that event!

Finally, there is the business of the Fraternity and Sorority to conduct this week, and there are some important issues on the table that bear your serious attention. Be an active part of that process and make your voice be heard. KKΨ and TBΣ have the wonderful benefits of having some exceptional leaders, who care deeply about our organizations, and they want your ideas and concerns about where we are and the directions and issues we face.

With over 700 of us throughout the hotel, it is natural to have some celebrations, but I do want to ask you to be mindful of many other guests that will be in the hotel. Don't celebrate loudly in the hotel where you would disturb other guests. We have a stellar record of courtesy and conduct over the past decade at our national conventions, and I just remind you of that important point. Help us maintain that record!

I look forward to meeting as many of you as possible this week, and I know we all will have a memorable experience as we continue to seek ways to take KKΨ and TBΣ forward to new heights!

Thank you and God Bless...

Respectfully submitted,
Lt Col Alan L. Bonner, USAF (Ret.)
National Executive Director

REPORT OF THE NATIONAL VICE PRESIDENT FOR SPECIAL PROJECTS

by Kathy Godwin, Life Member, Omega, TBΣ

Sisters and Brothers:

After the convention in Corpus Christi, the councils decided to begin the biennium with projects to promote the spirit of joint relations. The idea being that each officer pairing would work together on a program that would improve both organizations. The time spent together would help the counterparts learn how the others work.

The Vice President of Special Projects and Vice President of Programs were asked to focus on district conventions. This has been an area in which students, alumni, counselors, governors, and both councils have expressed desire to see improvement.

I would like to tell you that I have a district convention guide to offer the joint delegation. The guide covers both the bid process and hosting convention. The guide is set up to allow for variation as each district is it's own group with it's own schedules and needs.

I hope you find this guide to be helpful and please let me know if you have any questions, comments or additions.

Respectfully submitted,
Kathy Godwin

REPORT OF THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR COMMUNICATION AND RECOGNITION AND THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR STUDENT AFFAIRS

Tony calls Kimbi on her cell phone and they begin the normal dialogue from their monthly phone calls ...communication is key!

Topic 1 - National Intercollegiate Marching Band

It is important to remember the initial vision of the NIMB as first presented by the students on the National Listserv many years ago. The discussion centered on a field show marching band that would perform in the continental United States of America. However, it is understandable for ideas to change in scope and purpose over several years. The actual event took place in July 2002 and encompassed a trip to the French coast with several performances by the band.

At the Joint Councils meeting in January 2002, we discussed the cost-benefit analysis of the NIMB. With some quick estimation, we concluded that there were some concerns for continuing this project due to the number of our members able to participate, the cost to our membership nationally and overall scope that the project entails. There are approximately 7000 dues-paying members of the Fraternity and Sorority. About 35 dues-paying members went on the trip to France and paid over $1500 per person. One factor for the low participation included a general fear of traveling abroad due to the terrorist attacks of 2001. The high cost of the package also contributed to a lack of interest among our student members. More than $7000 was spent directly from the organizations' operating budgets not including our staffs' time invested in the planning and execution of the trip. In the end, the NIMB cost our members more than $1 each and benefited less than 1% of our membership.

Upon researching further ideas, such as possible field shows at post BCS bowl games or summer band camps, we realized that there are many organizations that do these kinds of events better than we could. Unfortunately the musical value to our members would be minimal. The discussion also turned to promoting a non-musical touring trip within our organizations. We felt that again, there are travel agencies for that purpose and we don't need to focus our resources in that direction.

After this review and multiple discussions concerning a further change in scope and/or purpose of the NIMB, we recommended to the Joint Councils during our meeting in July 2002, to drop the NIMB as a joint project of Tau Beta Sigma and Kappa Kappa Psi. The Joint Councils agreed and the National Intercollegiate Marching Band has been dissolved.

Topic 2 - 9/11 Commissioning Piece

After September 11, 2001, the world became a different place. The fraternity and sorority wanted to make a musical contribution to the world of band music to signify this change. With your help we commissioned Donald Grantham's "Come, memory..." and premiered it in a unique way. We asked an outstanding band with joint chapters in each district to premiere the work as close to the anniversary of 9/11 as possible. Many of you were part of those performances as players and audience members. Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma will always remember the victims, their families and friends through this wonderful piece of music.

Topic 3 - Respect

After two years of working together as counterparts on the national council, we have built a mutual respect for each other as well as a true friendship. We certainly don't always agree but we have always shared our opinions with each other and then in turn with our own councils. Our voices have definitely been heard and for that I thank you, Kimbi. And I thank you, Tony!

FINAL REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON PROGRAMS

by Chris Foster, Southwest District President, TΒΣ

Dusty Brown, Southwest District President, KΚΨ
Co-Chairs

The Joint Committee on Programs was charged with reviewing the Stanley G. Finck Award. We reviewed the way that the Stanley G. Finck award is presented in both Guides to Membership Education and noted one discrepancy from the current practice. In the next to last paragraph, it states that "The award may be given once every two years per organization in conjunction with the National Convention." This is not the current practice. While each organization may submit nominees, only one award winner is selected by the Joint National Council, not one per organization. We recommend the statement be changed to read, "The award may be given every two years by the Joint National Council in conjunction with the National Convention."

The committee also discussed the nomination process. When originally proposed, the award was designed to use what has come to be known as the "cross-pollination" effect for submitting nominees, cross-pollination being defined as having members of Kappa Kappa Psi nominate Tau Beta Sigma members for the award and vice versa. We discussed the pros and cons of either changing the process or leaving it the same. The committee feels that in honoring the spirit in which the award was founded, that no change in this process is warranted. This encourages members of each organization to look to their Brothers and/or Sisters to find who best exemplifies the spirit of joint cooperation between Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma.

Finally, in keeping with the current practice by the National Council of Tau Beta Sigma bringing all award deadlines together, we jointly agreed to change the application due date to December 1 of the year preceding National Conventions.

We would like to thank everyone who gave up their long hours deliberating this and also thank our advisors, committee members, committee secretaries, and the hotel employees for the pitchers of water.

Respectfully Submitted,

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATIONS

by Amber Robinson, TBΣ Midwest District Vice President for Special Projects,
Carrie Shuck, KKΨ Midwest District Vice President, Co-Chairs

The 2003 Joint Publications Committee was charged with the following:

1. Review the qualities and the content of our national publications: The PODIUM, NewsNotes Online, and the website.

The PODIUM

Our first topic, The PODIUM, was discussed at great length including going on-line for more content, representing each organization equally, selling advertisements, more diverse chapter content, creating more of a focus for the active member, and ways to save money in printing/distribution of The PODIUM.

Recommendations:

1. To allow more chapter news in The PODIUM, we recommend a maximum of 300 words for submission in the chapter section. Set and post these magazine guidelines for standards in The PODIUM so all chapters are aware of the standard for publications.
2. Create an online PODIUM (E-PODIUM) for articles that are of the quality that The PODIUM would support but could not be published for specified reasons so that the article can still be recognized.
3. If an article is rejected by The PODIUM and the E-PODIUM, the article will be looked at and given suggestions as to how the article can become publishable.
4. On the Chapter Personal Report will be a request line for the number of The PODIUM magazines that your chapter would like to receive. A chapter can only request up to five copies above the number of their current active members. If this question is not answered the chapters will automatically receive two copies of said publication.
5. Limit the number of colored pages in one issue up to eight (the front and back of the front cover, the front and back of the back cover and four pages for the feature article.)

NewsNotes Online

We discussed this and felt that the notes themselves should, for the most part, be left alone but we do feel that it could be more stable.

Recommendations:

1. The notes must be published the first of every month. If the notes can not make this deadline due to whatever reason, a notice will be sent out, via email, explaining why and the notes will continue the following month.
2. The notes will include a link to the E-PODIUM.

The Webpage

This discussion was mainly centered on clean-up and upkeep of the current joint webpage. We feel that the separate web pages should be updated by their respective side.

Recommendations:

1. Update deadlines by either removal or re-link.
2. Update chapter lines to the chapter website. If a chapter website is unavailable, a link to the chapter's school site.
3. Update a minimum of once a month.
4. Change any "eyesores" (i.e. white background with yellow text) to be more user friendly.

Other Recommendations:

While making decisions, we realized that all these recommendations and publications cannot be handled by Mike McMurtrey and Col. Alan Bonner alone. We, as a committee, have decided that an Editors Committee be formed. The Editors Committee will be formed by persons selected by the Presidents of the Districts. The district president, of both Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma, will select one person to represent their district on this committee. This committee will help with the website, creating and postings of the E-PODIUM, and posting of extra content.

The main thing this committee will focus on will be the E-PODIUM. They are charged to notify the writer of an article posting on the site. They are also charged with returning a rejected article to the writer with suggestions and encouragement to resubmit with suggested changes.

Charges:

1. Section off The PODIUM for different areas. (i.e. Headquarters, District/Chapter information. etc).
2. Revisit the amount of color in The PODIUM change if needed.
3. Look into competition for a joint webpage design.
4. Look into creating a maximum bandwidth limit for the website.

Thank You:

- Mike McMurtrey, for his work on the publications and for addressing the committee's questions.
- The advisors for their guidance.
- Committee members for their great ideas.
- Thanks to all for taking notes and writing on the big post-it notes.
